WHY DOES THIS WORK? (1/2)

WONDER BOX

With a physical wound
we all know what to do with it:

Very minor:

Just leave it

Minor:

Inspect, clean, put a band aid on to protect from dirt and bumps

Major:

Get it stitched up

In all cases, you are not actively involved in the healing.
Your body does it for you.
It only needs you not to get in the way of it.

With an emotional hurt, it works the same way!

Very minor:

Just leave it...

Take your mind of it, do something else

Minor:

Inspect, clarify, apply a wonderment patch on it ...

Take your mind of it and do something else.

Major:

Inspect, clarify, apply a wonderment patch,
stitch it up with wonderment spray

In all cases:

Remember you are not actively involved in the healing...

Your system does it for you,

It only needs your consciousness not to get in the way of it,
because..

Whatever you give attention grows:

Focussing too long on the hurt, only increases the pain of it.

Likewise if you ignore it (don't clarify) or resist it, or add pressure to it.

So, lovingly take care of your wound by applying wonderment on it.

In doing so you are helping your own natural ability to heal from emotional hurts.

wonderment is such
powerful treatment:

WONDER
BOX

Let's visualize an emotional wound:

W O U N D

“ I am (right in the middle of) my hurt”

And usually:

“ you are hurting me!”

(whomever you think that might be doing something to hurt you)

HOW TO HEAL IT?

W O U N D E R

At the e.r.

take serious but gentle care of the wound

W O N D E R

Clean it: remove the u (you) out of it
look at it: what is the real situation?
(inside and outside)

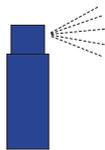

I
W O N D E R

Put both sides gently together

take responsibility (u > i)

and picture the healed result

where there is much more to experience
than the boundaries of the wound

WONDERMENT SPRAY
(VIBRATIONAL ESSENCE)

Applying wonderment spray on yourself
contributes to the sealing/ healing
for deep and recurring emotional wounds

It is a spiritual wisdom that you need to change your perception, your mental position, in order for a painful situation to heal (itself).

Your position is your choice! You have got to make the first move.

In feeding the hurt, you are literally in the way of allowing both sides to grow together again.

Wonderment is a treatment you can apply to heal.
